

What has Oxendine done for Georgia consumers?

Oxendine “has been less than aggressive about pursuing ‘excessive’ rate increases, which the law authorizes him to do.”
(AJC, editorial, 10/11/02)

High Health Insurance Rates

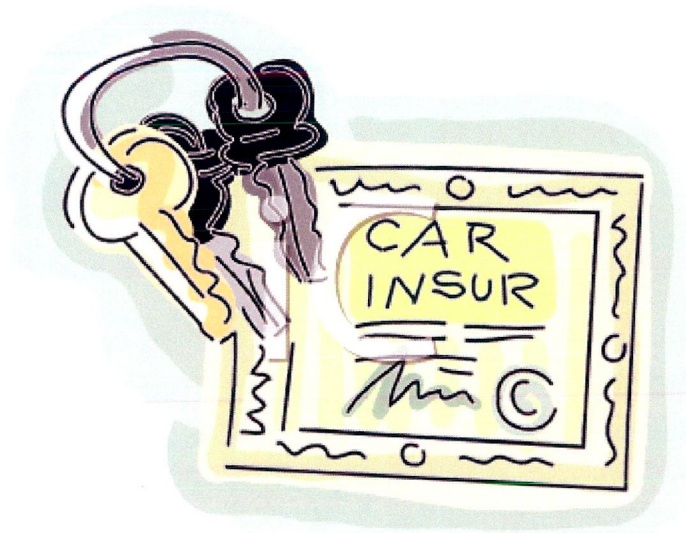

Individual Market, Average Annual Premiums, 2009

State	Single	Family Average
Georgia	$3,228	$7,408
South Carolina	$3,204	$6,128
Florida	$3,191	$6,527
Tennessee	$3,150	$5,957
Kentucky	$2,740	$5,980
North Carolina	$2,613	$5,120

Source: America's Health Insurance Plans

In his first year of office, Oxendine approved auto rate increases up to 18.5 percent for at least 15 companies.

Cost of Auto Insurance Increasing Faster Than National Average

(Source: National Association of Insurance Commissioners)

GA 39%

US 22%

	U.S. Av.	GA Av.	Rank	Diff. U.S. vs. GA
2007	$795	$782	21st	$13
2006	817	788	22nd	$29
2005	829	784	24th	$45
2004	838	779	24th	$59
2003	823	759	25th	$64
2002	780	739	23rd	$41
2001	724	703	23rd	$21
2000	690	674	22nd	$16
1999	685	672	22nd	$13
1998	703	672	24th	$31
1997	706	653	25th	$53
1996	691	628	25th	$63
1995	667.5	596.7	26th	$71
1994	650.6	564	28th	$87

8th Most Expensive Car Insurance

According to Insure.com, Georgia ranks 8th as having the most expensive auto insurance in the country.

Comparison of SE states

Rank	State	Av. Prem.
8	Georgia	$1,751.42
19	Kentucky	$1,515.30
25	Florida	$1,453.20
30	Alabama	$1,380.38
41	South Carolina	$1,182.18
42	Tennessee	$1,170.12
44	North Carolina	$1,130.45
	National	$1,429.26